

SHORT BREAKS WITH LONG MEMORIES

Shropshire has many quintessentially English towns standing on the banks of the River Severn. Discover medieval buildings, castles, independent shops, cafes and pubs. Perfect for exploring at your own pace.

Meandering Market Towns - For Chilled Out People

Day 1 - Ludlow

A thriving, medieval market town with a racecourse, a large ruined castle and 500 listed buildings. The timber-framed Feathers Hotel has both a tea room and a cocktail bar. Daily markets (except Tuesdays) and a Farmers' Market on the 2nd and 4th Thursday of the month.

More to Discover....

Much Wenlock is a small town with holy wells, cobbles, an ancient Guildhall and the tranquil ruins of Wenlock Abbey. Or travel further to the small towns of Clun and Bishops Castle between the Shropshire Hills and the borders of Wales.

Day 3 - Shrewsbury

Shrewsbury has a castle, a riverside park and lots of independent shops, cafes, pubs and restaurants. The award-winning Market Hall Shrewsbury is full of artisan products and fresh local produce. The Town Square hosts a Monthly Farmers Market (1st Friday) and the Made in Shropshire Market (2nd Saturday).
